

Pulte Homes Purchases 508 sites for Waterfront Homes at Isles of Lake Nona

ORLANDO, Fla. – Pulte Homes has purchased 142 acres for Isles of Lake Nona, a new waterfront community scheduled to open in 2020. It will feature more than 500 residences with an inter-connected network of ponds in Central Florida’s fastest-growing master-planned community, Lake Nona.

“This will be one of the few gated new home communities in Lake Nona,” said Clint Ball, President of PulteGroup’s North Florida division. “It will offer a high-quality lifestyle at prices starting under $300,000.”

Isles of Lake Nona will offer buyers a choice of single-family homes, townhomes and bungalows with open-concept floor plans, designer finishes and energy-efficient features. With customizable designs, kitchens and more can be configured to suit individual tastes and family lifestyles. Plus, smart home capabilities in every home taking advantage of Lake Nona’s built-in gigabit connectivity.

The community will have a clubhouse, resort-style pool, tot lot, sport courts and water views at every turn. Isles of Lake Nona sits less than 3 miles from State Road 417 off Narcoossee Road, convenient to the health care facilities of Medical City and dining and retail options within the growing Lake Nona Town Center.
